Why we photograph you, and what happens to these images:

The UVM Larner College of Medicine Creative Services unit takes photographs and video of many different moments that show what life is like at the Larner College of Medicine. We use these images of medical education, research, patient care, and community service to promote the College to prospective students, and to alumni, friends, community leaders, and others who want to know about the work of the College and are interested in supporting that work. Your image and, in fact, every image from the College's archive is used solely by the College for its own communication and administrative needs. All images are kept in our secure online archive that is open only to registered and approved users at UVM and its clinical partners.

Subject's Permission and Rights Granted:

By signing this release I hereby give the Photographer/Filmmaker and Assigns, and The University of Vermont, my permission to use the Images in any Media for any legitimate purpose, which may include, among others, promotion, marketing and packaging for any product or service. I agree that the Images may be combined with other images, text and graphics, and cropped, altered or modified.

I agree that all rights to the Images belong to The University of Vermont. I acknowledge and agree that I have no further right to additional Consideration or accounting, and that I will make no further claim for any reason to the Photographer/Filmmaker and/or Assigns or The University of Vermont. I acknowledge and agree that this release is binding upon my heirs and assigns. I agree that this release is irrevocable, worldwide and perpetual, and will be governed by the laws of the state of Vermont, excluding the law of conflicts.

I represent and warrant that I am at least 18 years of age and have the full legal capacity to execute this release.
