

The 16th Annual

Cultural Awareness

CONFERENCE

Wednesday, February 15, 2017

7:30 AM – 12:00 PM

Grand Maple Ballroom

Dudley Davis Center

Human Trafficking in Vermont

Recognition and Response

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Rachel DiSanto, M.D.

Family Physician, Family Practice of Newport

UVM Clinical Assistant Professor of Family Medicine; Alumna of the UVM College of Medicine and UVM Family Medicine Program

PANEL DISCUSSION WITH THE VERMONT ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING COLLABORATIVE

Edith Klimoski, MS, Give Way to Freedom

Matt Hill, VT State Police Detective Trooper

Raenetta Liberty, RN, SANE Clinical Coordinator

MaryEllen Mendl, Director of Vermont 2-1-1

Sister Pat McKittrick, RN, UVM Medical Center

Community Health Improvement Coordinator

Emily Reed, MSW, Case Management & Social Work

Registration begins
January 5th

REGISTER AT

[www.med.uvm.edu/
familymedicine/home](http://www.med.uvm.edu/familymedicine/home)

For more information contact Lori Durieux:

Lori.Durieux@med.uvm.edu

This Annual Workshop is an interprofessional experience for UVM Medical, Advanced Practice Nursing and Social Work Students, Family Medicine Residents, Albany College of Pharmacy Students, as well as faculty and interested community members.

Supported by:

Larner College of Medicine
Department of Family Medicine
TOPMed HRSA Training Grant
Office of Primary Care and AHEC Program
Clinical Simulation Laboratory
College of Nursing and Health Sciences
Office of Diversity and Inclusion
Office of Medical Student Education

The University of Vermont

LARNER COLLEGE OF MEDICINE