Clinical Simulation Workshop

The Clinical Simulation Laboratory is holding a series of open workshops for faculty development in clinical simulation. Participants will learn techniques in simulation and collaborate with others to develop effective simulation-based programs for their clinical departments. Simulation workshops are open to all faculty members of the College of Medicine, College of Nursing and Health Sciences and Fletcher Allen Health Care.

Email Elizabeth.Pratt@uvm.edu to register for a workshop. Space is limited so RSVP early.

Agenda

- Tour of simulation lab
- Designing clinical simulation cases
- Debriefing techniques
- Effective use of simulation technology
- Interprofessional education

Clinical Simulation Laboratory

A collaborative effort of the UVM College of Medicine, the UVM College of Nursing and Health Sciences, and Fletcher Allen Health Care, the Clinical Simulation Laboratory is a centralized hub that brings together many different groups and constituencies, with the ultimate goal of improving quality and safety of care.
