

Disclosure of Support:

Faculty at the Vermont Center for Children, Youth, and Families are supported by funds from UVM and FAHC and grants from the following sources:

1. NIMH - “Risk and Resilience in Maltreated Children”

PI: James Hudziak, M.D. 4,259,324 (2012-20016)

2. NIHM – “Determinants of Adolescent Exercise Behavior: Towards Evidence-Based Intervention”

PI: James Hudziak, M.D. (MPI Project) 2,591,655 (2012-2016)

3. NIMH - "Child Behavior Checklist-Dysregulation Profile: Genes, Environment, & Life Course" PI: Robert Althoff, M.D. $1,020,218 (2009-2014)

4. Klingenstein Third Generation Foundation “Donald J. Cohen Medical Student Training Program” PI: Robert Althoff, M.D. $10,000 (2007-2014)

5. Department of Health Division of Health Promotion and Disease Prevention, State of Vermont “Pilot Study of the use of Tele-Child Psychiatry in Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHC’s)” PI: James Hudziak, M.D. $100,000 (2010-present)

Conflict of Interest Statement:

All members of the Vermont Center for Children, Youth, and Families have made a commitment to remain free of conflicts of interest with respect to for-profit vendors and the pharmaceutical industry. We do not have any relationships with the pharmaceutical industry such as clinical trials, consultations, or lectureships. We will remain free of all such conflicts and fully comply with the UVM/FAHC guidelines on Conflicts of Interest.