Subject: Student scholarship from Navy Medicine

Hello,

The Navy Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP) is an educational support program for individuals pursuing graduate degrees in professional medical programs and who have a desire to serve in the US Navy following graduation. As a physician in the Navy Medical Corps, you will attend to service members and their families in much the same way a civilian doctor would. But in the world of Navy Health Care, you will attain a broader spectrum of experience faster as you practice at the forefront of medicine.

Benefits of the program include:

- Full Tuition (no upper limit) and allowable Fees
- Reimbursement for all required books, supplies and equipment (some limits apply)
- Monthly Stipend of $2200
- Full Pay and Allowances of an Ensign (O1) for 45 days per year (about $4,500)
- Signing bonus up to $20,000
- Reimbursement for student's Health Insurance if required by school
- No malpractice insurance to buy

Requirements for selection:

- U.S. Citizen (dual citizenship not permitted)
- Accepted into an accredited school in the U.S., Canada or Puerto Rico
- Not have reached age 42 at the time of graduation
- Physically qualified for a commission in the U.S. Navy

If interested, please fill in the below information so we can assist you. Additional information concerning the program may be found at: <http://www.navy.com/careers/healthcare/physician>
