

General Orthopaedic Surgeon

The Department of Orthopaedics and Rehabilitation at The University of Vermont College of Medicine and The University of Vermont Medical Group is seeking a general orthopaedic surgeon for a full-time position as a Clinical Practice Physician. The role of the Clinical Practice Physician is first to provide the highest quality of patient care. Providing a patient base for clinical teaching and research, as well as modest amounts of personal teaching, are also expected. This position will fill a clinical need at our network hospital, Champlain Valley Physicians' Hospital (CVPH) in Plattsburgh, NY. Plattsburgh offers a family-oriented community on beautiful Lake Champlain, near the Adirondacks, the Lake Placid-Olympic region and Montreal (www.NorthCountryGoodLife.com).

Qualifications: Applicants must have completed an accredited orthopaedic surgery residency and must be ABOS eligible or certified in orthopaedic surgery.

The University is especially interested in candidates who can contribute to the diversity and excellence of the academic community through their research, teaching, and/or service. Applicants are requested to include in their cover letter information about how they will further this goal.

The University of Vermont Medical Group is a multi-specialty practice that includes more than 600 physicians who are jointly employed by the University of Vermont College of Medicine and The University of Vermont Medical Group. CVPH is part of The University of Vermont Health Network, a five-hospital network serving patients and their families in Northern New York and Vermont.
