VERMONT’S UNIVERSAL DEVELOPMENTAL SCREENING SYSTEM
Leveraging Project LAUNCH Strategies For Help Me Grow System Building

Vermont’s system for universal developmental screening is a collaborative process to understand every child’s developmental progression and respond appropriately to meet each child’s developmental needs.

Medical Home
- Anticipatory Guidance
- Surveillance
- Screening
- Referral (Evaluation, HMG VT, CIS)
- Care Coordination

Child and Family
- Monitoring
- Screening
- Self Referral (HMG VT, CIS, medical home, or other developmental services)
- Care Coordination

Community Agencies & Organizations
- Family Support
- Home Visiting Services
- Screening
- Evaluation
- Parenting Education
- Care Coordination
- Consultation
- Intervention Services

School
- Parenting Education
- Monitoring and Screening
- Assessment
- Evaluation
- Referral (HMG VT, CIS, medical home, or other intervention services)
- Care Coordination

Early Care & Education
- Parenting Education & Anticipatory Guidance
- Monitoring
- Screening
- Referral (HMG VT, CIS, medical home)

2013, Developed by the Vermont Child Health Improvement Program (VCHIP) in collaboration with: American Academy of Pediatrics—VT Chapter, Building Bright Futures, Child Care Resource, Children’s Integrated Services, Early Care and Education Professionals, Families, Howard Center, LUND, Northern Lights Career Development Center, Vermont Academy of Family Physicians, Vermont Association for the Education of Young Children, Vermont Agency of Human Services, Vermont Family Network, and Visiting Nurses Association. 2017, revised in collaboration with HMG VT.